San Diego, California 92124
Church phone: 858-576-9990

We're excited to host Michael Scofield for our 2017 Winter meeting. Michael Scofield is an Assistant Professor of Health Information Management at Loma Linda University. He is a popular speaker, writer, and consultant in the fields of data management, data quality assessment, and data visualization. Michael's career has included education and private industry in areas of data quality, decision-support systems, data warehousing, and data management. His articles appear in DM Review, the B-Eye Newsletter, InformationWeek magazine, the Northern California Oracle User Group Journal, the IBI Systems Journal, and other professional journals. He has spoken to over 240 professional audiences in these disciplines all over the U.S., in London, and Australia. Michael also has a variety of topics for general audiences, including: satellite imagery, the succession to the British monarchy, and various travel topics. He also has humor published in the L.A. Times and other journals.

In his lecture for the SDAF, Scofield will present a careful analysis of the factors which have led the Seventh-day Adventist Church to its current predicament related to the issue of women's ordination.

A Meet the Speaker lunch in the church boardroom will immediately follow the 11 am worship service. Donations to offset the cost of the lunch are appreciated!

Upcoming Meetings

We've been working hard to schedule a number of exciting speakers in the upcoming year (special thanks to Mary Proctor-Dehn!). Here are a few speakers to look forward to:

Spring 2017: Gilbert Valentine
Ellen White's Australian period and expulsion

Summer 2017: Carlos Parra
Immigration and the role of the Church

Winter 2018: Jon Henderson
Homosexuality within the Church
